BOOK SYNOPSIS

So, whats for dinner? You are probably familiar-painfully familiar-with this question. Its uttered by your husband from the living room (even though you can hardly hear him over the sports highlights), posed by your teenager as he barrels through the door after soccer, or running through your mind as you sit in traffic after a long day at work. And unlike the other headscratchers you encounter in life, this is one you confront every...single...day. Fortunately, you now have an answer to this question- 189 easy and delicious answers, as a matter of fact. From the editors of Real Simple magazine comes this beautiful, comprehensive book designed to help the busy modern cook. The recipes-many of which are ready in less than 30 minutes-feature accessible ingredients, streamlined techniques, and smart tips, tricks, and substitutions. Which means the only remaining question is: Whos on cleanup duty?
